Superintendent

Howard D. Crull

Howard D. Crull, Superintendent of Port Huron Public Schools for the past sixteen years, is the leader of our school's building and educational advancement programs. Port Huron is proud to have such a capable and energetic school leader.

The Board of Education

Evidence of time and effort expended by the Port Huron Board of Education is seen throughout the city. The 1957-1958 school year was another period where progress was made in the public schools of Port Huron to improve the opportunities for education.

The Junior College was moved to the former high school building where an increased student body was better served with an expanded program.

A careful study of the school curriculum in all grades, and particularly on the high school level, was made to provide the opportunity for students capable of doing work at an accelerated rate to do so.

The vocational education field on the secondary school level was studied.

The Board of Education has been studying how best to meet the needs of an expanded school enrollment. Although new schools have been provided, the Board has been cognizant of the crowded conditions in some areas.

The Board of Education is proud of the work being done throughout the school system—with the administrative and supervisory staff, the teachers, and students, working in close harmony and understanding.

Principal

Mr. Tomlinson, our veteran principal of seventeen years, is known to all the students of P.H.H.S. as a true friend. We are all familiar with his pleasant smile and hearty "Hello".

Besides performing his administrative duties, he devotes much time, energy, and thought toward ways to make our high school days more memorable.

Mr. Tomlinson, in every way, co-operates with both the students and teachers. He adds much to the keeping of the "old P.H.H.S. spirit" here in our new school.

Dedication

Miss Florence Wiese

Miss Wiese is genuinely proud of the students, of their accomplishments and of the honors they win. She is quick to praise all our honest efforts and give credit where credit is due.

We always know that she is behind us, supporting all our school activities enthusiastically.

Students and teachers alike bring their problems to her, sure of a sympathetic ear.

It is with pride, admiration, and respect that we dedicate the 1958 "Student" to our own Miss Wiese.

MISS FLORENCE WIESE
Assistant Principal

Counseling

Miss Wiese, as assistant principal for a number of years, has helped with the administration of the school program: she has charge of pupil personnel records, attendance, the testing program—to name a few of her numerous duties.

One of her important responsibilities is that of Guidance Director—She works closely with the counselors in their work with the students.

Miss Kean and Miss Moore in an understanding manner assist the girls in making decisions. The girls know that when confronted with problems, they can always confide in their counselor.

MISS ELLEN KEAN

MISS FRANCES MOORE

Counseling

Mr. Sommerville, our helpful Dean of Students, is a very busy man.

Besides sharing the administrative responsibility of all our students, he works with the class sponsors in setting up their activities; and he schedules all activities after school hours, except the athletic events.

Mr. Feick and Mr. Gerke, counselors, work with the boys in setting up their school programs. They, with patience and understanding, assist the boys in working out their problems.

“The Red-White Fight Song”

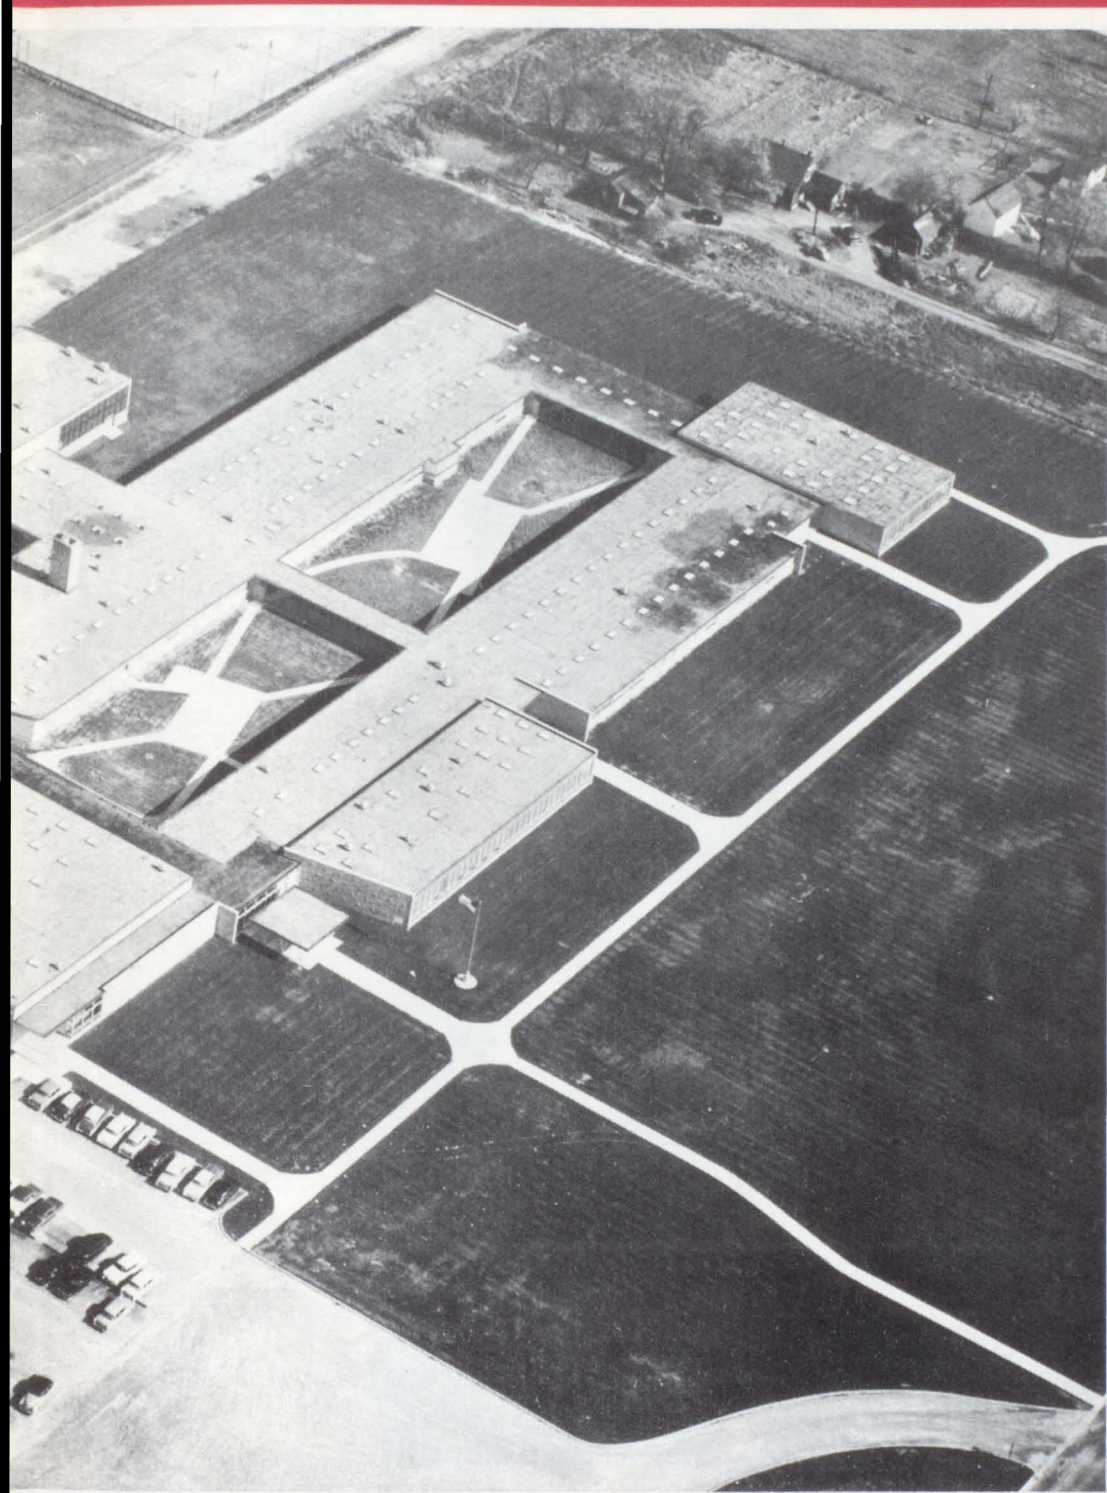

Come on and—Join our song for Port Huron High,
The best school in this land
Grand and glorious we'll be victorious,
The Red and White shall stand.
Oh, she's the stronghold of our community,
She stands for all that's Right!
So fight, fight, fight for Alma Mater
And show them with our might.

CHORUS:

Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
On to victory.
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Shall our watchword be.

So come on join our song for Port Huron High,
Champions now are we!
So fight, fight, fight for Alma Mater
And sing for victory!

VARSITY BAND

Director Clarence H. Wade

The Varsity Band is composed of 60 advanced students in Instrumental Music. Each student is selected by the director, Mr. Wade. This group studies music of the great composers of the past and many contemporary compositions. It participates in the Spring Concert and the St. Clair County Band Festival. A special project of the Band this year was the presentation of concerts for community service clubs to better acquaint the public with the quality of music being studied as well as the level of performance acquired by students in the Instrumental Program. We lose 22 seniors by graduation from this Band, and they will be sorely missed. These 22 members have been, to a large extent, the backbone of our Band for the past three years.

Missing: Janice Andrews, Gloria Staiger, Gordon Conger, James Bates, David McLaughlin, and Joan White.

A new experiment was tried in Marching Band this year which worked out quite successfully. Volunteers were accepted from both Cadet and Varsity Bands and the rehearsing took place during the lunch hour. Perhaps there were a few cases of indigestion when students ate their lunches in fifteen minutes, then ran at full tilt for the practice field with their instruments. The members did a wonderful job playing for the football games and in leading the Homecoming Parade; the school was very proud of them. The 84 members made this the largest band P.H.H.S. has had on the football field.

CADET BAND

This is the largest Cadet Band P.H.H.S. has had in many years. This group is in some ways a training unit. Members come to this Band from the different junior high schools in the area.

Besides learning the fundamentals of yearbook developing, journalism, and salesmanship, members of the "58" Student Staff have found something even more valuable. Even though each member of the staff has an important deadline to meet, the whole staff can usually be seen helping one another and working in harmony, in an atmosphere hard to surpass in its quality of co-operation.

Thus the 1958 "Student" stands out as the product of the co-ordinated efforts of all members of the yearbook staff.

The Governing Body of Port Huron High School is the Student Council. This organization is established to provide for the voice and participation of the students in school policies and activities, and to promote better relations between students and teachers. The Council acts as a mediator between the student body and the administration. All committee procedure is a pattern of democracy.

Each homeroom elects one representative to the Student Council. These elections and those of the Student President and Vice-President are held each semester. It is through the representative that every student may have a voice in the student government.

Standing: Mr. Thomas Case, Janet Yakes, Miss Marry Leonard, Patricia Seiber, Miss Mary Neil, Arthur Schermerhorn, Faith Peyton, Carl Moss, Darryl Martin, Robert Love, David Jeanson, Mary Blackney, Martha Benedict, and Dennis Barth.

LIBRARY CLUB

Shhhh! Those busy, helpful students you see buzzing around the library are members of the Library Club. They are glad to help you find the books and materials you need; also, they decide on the library rules and fines all good booklovers must observe.

The club members have frequent parties throughout the year.

Seated: Sharon Fuller, Sarah Jane Ziegler, Margaret Mellick, and Nancy Emlaw. Standing: Gerald Richards, Nancy Wilcox, Miss Jessop, Patricia Trembath, and George Dunn.

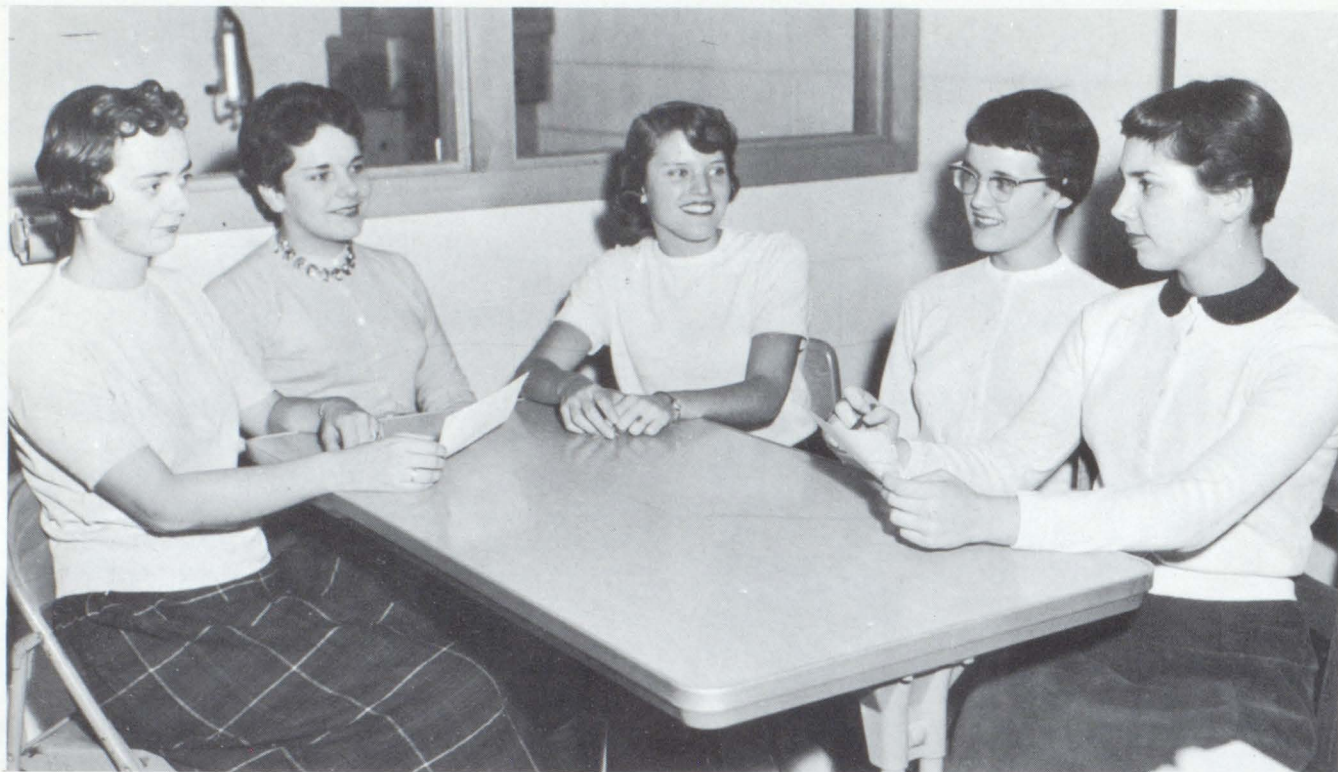

RADIO CLUB

Strange sounds greet the ears of those unfamiliar with the Radio Club. The language is English, but the terms are strange. Individual members of the club make their own radio sets, and enjoy the opportunity of talking with other Hams (amateur radio operators) all over the world, on ships, far-flung military bases, and foreign countries. They explore the exciting, strange world of electricity and communications.

Yea, Team!

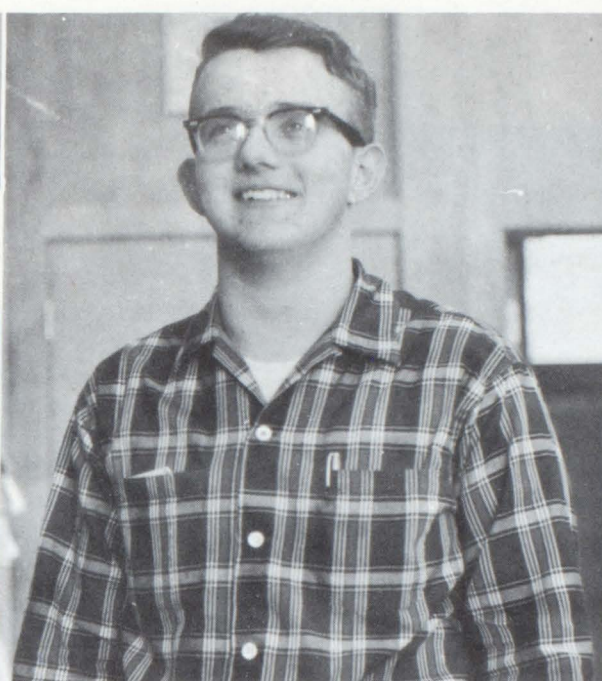

The senior class was proud to learn that two of its members, Cynthia Clark and Arthur Schermerhorn, passed the first National Merit Scholarship test, which permitted them to take the final test in January.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation is an independent, non-profit organization created to devise and administer a system of scholarships for higher education. On October 22, 1957, 300,000 seniors from all over the United States and its provinces took a National Merit Scholarship test given by this organization. Out of these, 7,500 were selected to be allowed to take the final test.

MARY LOTRIDGE

Mary Lotridge was selected by her fellow classmates and members of the faculty as the D.A.R. Good Citizen from P.H.H.S.

Out of the senior class three girls were selected to receive this award. The girls are chosen who possess the qualities of dependability, leadership, service, and patriotism.

The faculty then selects one of the three girls to be Port Huron High Good Citizen.

MARILYN F. HILL

This year's winner of the Betty Crocker Award was Marilyn F. Hill.

Every year General Mills sponsor a search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow. The two main purposes of it are: First, to find, through a knowledge and attitude test, the girl to receive a scholarship for advanced study; second, to provide instructional aids for pupils and teachers for added educational experiences.

Student Exchange Program

Six exchange students from Bay City visited us the week of March tenth, attending classes at P.H.H.S. Activities were planned for the students so they could have an enjoyable and worth-while time while in Port Huron. Among these activities were a dance on Friday night and a visit to the W.T.T.H, radio station on Saturday, as guests of James Wallington of the Teen Time Show.

Six P.H.H.S. students were selected to attend Bay City High School for one week.

The object of this visit is to learn more about other schools and how they operate.

They were guests in the homes of the students who visited here. An enjoyable and memorable time was had by the P.H.H.S. students.

Displaying the attractive ensemble of the button-down ivy league shirt with rich, black corduroy slacks is our model (upper left) Richard Fox. This style is very effective in combination and is very collegiate in appearance.

David Nicholson (at left) sports the handsome new bulky look in the crew-neck sweater, khaki pants, khaki car coat, and dirty buck shoes. This style is often popular with and very much admired by the fair sex.

Here (lower left) we have Larry Heald modeling this very dashing outfit; the sweater vest and flannel slacks. This is the most recent development in male casuals, and is a very handsome combination.

FOR AN EVENING LONG REMEMBERED

Judith Rowles (below) is gowned in a lovely ballerina formal with a soft, swirly, danceable skirt—a beautiful gown, accompanied by brocade embroidered slippers.

Wilfred Schneider (below) dons the white dinner jacket for the J-Hop.

For the attractive out-of-door look, model Linda Heering (upper right) demonstrates the modified Parisian style head band, and the swirly, stitched-down plaid pleated skirt and knee-socks combination. The cool colors, generally greens or grays, give the effect of gentle elegance.

We have a feminine counterpart of a style, also popular with the other sex, the crewneck sweater and the sporty gum-drop shoes, worn by our model (right) Roberta King.

"Tiny" Lorraine Landon (lower right) shows us a new French hair style, the chignon, or "bun"; other new touches are the elasticized, charming, waist blouse, and white tennis shoes, accompanied by white wool socks.

SPRING ENTERS—FLOATING

Constance Brown (lower left) wears the newsy chemise—the new look in easy line fashion. Its perfection of styling is the epitome of modern beauty, as fresh as spring.

Judith Johnson (lower center) is gowned in a misty, street-length formal with flowing, fine lines—just the gown for an evening at Kenwick-on-the-Lake.

11. Sponsored the Magazine Sale in February: Goal, $9,000; Sales, $9,757.

Linda Logan and Susan Seibert present the display of prizes for the top salesmen of the 1958 magazine sale.

Gaiety and excitement highlighted this year's homecoming day. Even before our feminine cheerleaders had time to put on their uniforms, a group of senior boys had organized a large part of the student body in the Lounge and hall for a pep rally. What a wonderful sendoff!

Students and teachers alike were living this day at a stepped-up tempo, and our school spirit was at its peak.

The parade was almost a mile long with such exciting variety that no one could truthfully say whose entry was the best.

Our team was victorious in dunking the Bathers, 26-14; this set the stage for a victory dance at which our attractive queen, Mary Lotridge, and her radiant court reigned. Enjoyable was the music of Mr. Wade and his "Commanders," who provided just the right atmosphere for a pleasant evening and the appropriate crescendo for an exciting homecoming.

Anticipation ran high as forty seniors and six sponsors embarked on the New York - Washington Trip the week of October 12. Soon they were to see the beautiful and historic sights of New York, Washington and Virginia.

They first approached the rolling hills and honey-suckle accents of Virginia and Williamsburg. They had the feeling of stepping into a page ripped from history. They saw the beautiful old homes surrounded by their rolling lawns and stately trees; then, sterner things - the old jail with its thick, heavy walls; and they even tried out the stocks. They also visited the beautiful Arlington National Cemetery, watched the changing of the guard, which was executed in solemn, stately precision.

Then, off to our nation's capitol. They saw the United States Supreme Court in session and were awestruck by the dignity and beauty of the occasion and its meaning to our nation. They admired the white-columned expanse of the Lincoln Memorial, and the Great Emancipator.

Probably the most impressive sight was the white-domed Capitol Building, surrounded by great white-pillared porches. Stately and proud, it houses the clockwork of our nation.

Regretfully bidding Washington good-bye, they went to New York where gaiety was the watchword. They saw the glass-paneled United Nations' building, a Broadway Musical; they took in a night club, called the Casino Royal.

It was a wonderful trip—one of the highlights of the senior year.

The A Capella Choir presented "Ruddigore" as their fourth annual Gilbert and Sullivan operetta on the evenings of May 23 and 24.

The action of the story took place in the fishing village of Redderine in the XVIIIth Century.

Robin Oakapple, a young farmer, is in love with the village beauty, Rose Maybud. He is, however, too shy to declare his affections. Rose is unaware of his passion and accepts Richard Dauntless, a Man-O-War's man, as her lover.

When Rose learns of Robin's love, she turns her affections to him, since he is a prosperous farmer, and Dick is only a poor sailor.

In the meantime Robin is identified as the true Baronet of Ruddigore. His younger brother, Sir Despard Murgatroyd, has been posing as the accursed villain. When Despard learns of his own innocence, he falls madly in love with Mad Margaret. Margaret has been insane throughout the first Act, but both she and Despard reform and are married in the second Act.

One of the highlights of the show occurred in the second Act when a picture gallery of ancestors of Ruddigore step down from their frames and discuss Robin's problems with him. These life-size portraits were painted by Larry Heald.

The finale was a hodge podge of gay music and dances. The story had the usual happy ending. The performance was judged a huge success by audience and cast alike.

Hopeful Young Performers

Practice - Practice - Practice

"October Serenade," the junior class Spotlight "swung" out full power last fall, giving talent from all classes an opportunity to entertain with swing, rock and roll, hilarious comedy, and novelty acts - Port Huron discovered unsuspected talent.

The enthusiastic spirit of the performers infected the audience, and it was debatable which had the better time. All the acts were well received, and some were called back for three and four encores.

Student performers were Butch Massman and Frank Elliott, Gail McIntyre, Cathy Dunbar, JoAnn Hough, Sharon Nordgren, Judy Merinski, Patricia Cline and Diane Gunn, Nancy Streeter, Armstead Diggs, Sue Odom, Darlene Moore, Phyllis Herple, Sandy Anton, the "Off Beats" band, and Ed Ligocki and his band.

The generally unsung heroes for the production of the Spotlight were: Mrs. Jacobus, faculty director of the program, assisted by Mr. Curti, Miss Edwards, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Wade, Mr. Harrison, and Mrs. Alexander; Student general chairman, Pat Smith; Script writers, Sharon Murdock, Tom Saunby, and Becky Falk; chairmen of the intricate job of business management, Judy Hunt and Joy Hoffman; chairmen of the spirited publicity campaign, Pat Downs, Susan Crockett, and Jim Stewart; Mary Lincoln's committee handled the eye-catching posters; and Jim Crumback supervised the lighting effects.

"Off Beats" - Robert Schneider, Franklin Oldham, Robert Weston, and Robert Wilton - play "Jail House Rock."

"Sports of All Sorts"

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the Memorial Stadium. In this stadium a battle for the "Little Brown Jug" and a Homecoming victory was a must. The football team came through with great success, beating Mount Clemens 26 to 6 for these school honors.

Such defensive skill as displayed here helped Port Huron to a 26 to 6 victory over Mount Clemens in the battle for the "Little Brown Jug."

As shown above, Flint Northern's ability to put men on base was a deciding factor in their win over Port Huron's baseball team.

As Seasons Change , so do Sports

Dennis Barth, Gene Warshefski, James Lymburner, James Likins, Gary Lee Smith, and Harvey Philko are shown on the firing line.
